

Birdwatching

Ivy, Luna, and Ethan have recently taken up a new hobby: birdwatching in the woods behind their homes. They share a pair of binoculars, and each day one of them uses them.

This week, each child spotted a different bird: a robin, a jay, and a bluebird.

Can you figure out which bird each child saw and on which day?

- 1. The boy did not see a bird on Monday.
- 2. A girl spotted a robin on Friday, but it was not Ivy.
- 3. The jay was spotted on Thursday.
