

Which Lost Boy Is Which?

In Neverland, all you have to do is believe in something, and it can happen. This is where Peter Pan lives – the boy who never grows up. Peter is the leader of the Lost Boys, a group of six boys who live with him in Neverland. There are no Lost Girls because, as Peter explains, girls are far too clever to fall out of their prams!

The Lost Boys are Nibs, Curly, Slightly, Tootles, and the Twins, who are never apart. But who wears which hat, and who is the oldest or the youngest? Can you figure it out?

1. Nibs is not the youngest and wears neither the panda hat nor the tiger hat.
2. Slightly wears the parrot hat, and he is not the gullible one.
3. The Twins wear neither the bear hat nor the panda hat.
4. The gullible boy wears the tiger hat.
5. The oldest boy wears the large bear hat.
6. Tootles is the youngest.
7. The mechanic and the inventor are never separated and wear matching hats.
